The pill can raise your blood pressure. Sure the correct adjustments are made to your dosage or application frequency to prevent further health problems.